When the bells ring, stand and face the cross.

Opening Hymn | 553 O Christ, Our Hope, Our Hearts' Desire

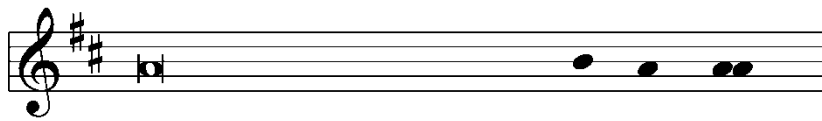

Opening Versicles

L O Lord, o - pen my lips,

C and my mouth will de - clare Your praise.

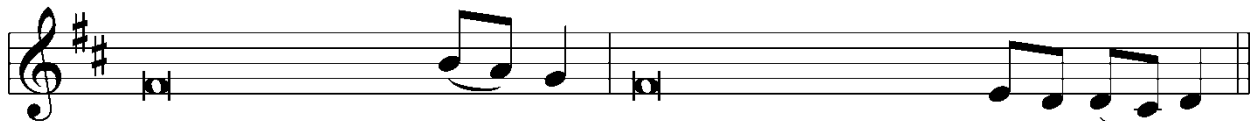

L Make haste, O God, to de - liv - er me;

C make haste to help me, O Lord.

C Glo-ry be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spir - it;

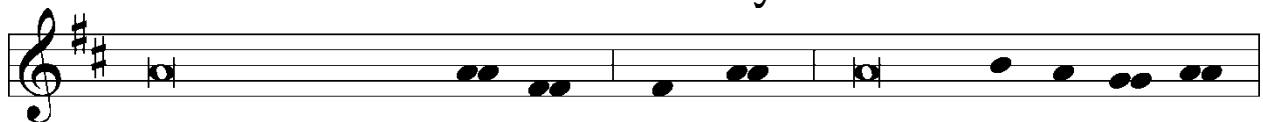

as it was in the be - gin - ning, is now, and will be for-ev-er. A - men.

Praise to You, O Christ. Al - le - lu - ia.

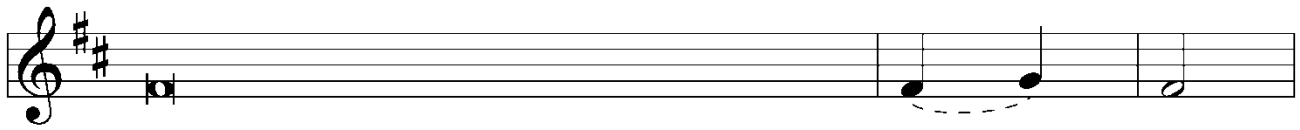

The Psalmody

L Blessed be God, the Fa - ther, the Son, and the Ho - ly Spir - it.

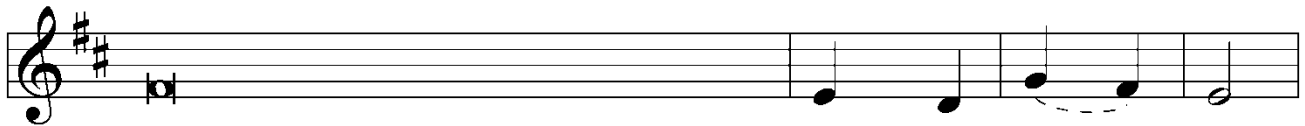

C O come, let us wor - ship Him.

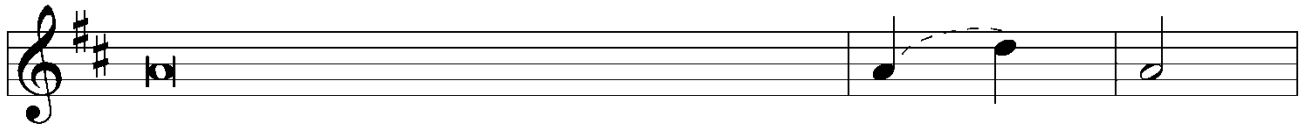

C 1 O come, let us sing to the Lord,
 2 For the Lord is a great God
 3 The sea is His, for He made it,

5 Glory be to the Father and to the Son

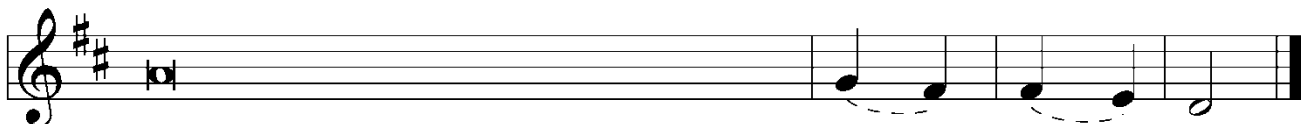

1 let us make a joyful noise to the rock of our sal - va - tion.
 2 and a great king a - bove all gods.
 3 and His hand formed the dry land.

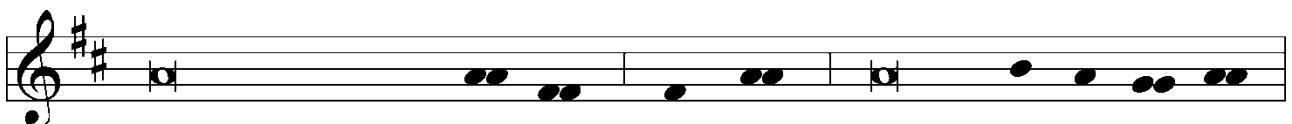

5 and to the Ho - ly Spir - it;

1 Let us come into His presence with thanks - giv - ing,
 2 The deep places of the earth are in His hand;
 3 O come, let us worship and bow down,
 4 For He is our God,
 5 as it was in the be - gin - ning,

1 let us make a joyful noise to Him with songs of praise.
 2 the strength of the hills is His al - so.
 3 let us kneel before the Lord, our mak - er.
 4 and we are the people of His pasture and the sheep of His hand.
 5 is now, and will be for - ev - er. A - men.

L Blessed be God, the Fa - ther, the Son, and the Ho - ly Spir - it.

C O come, let us wor - ship Him.

Additional Psalms

Psalm 41; antiphon: v. 1

- ¹Blessèd is the one who considers the poor!
In the day of trouble the LORD delivers him;
- ²the LORD protects him and keeps him alive;
he is called blessèd in the land;
you do not give him up to the will of his enemies.
- ³The LORD sustains him on his sickbed;
in his illness you restore him to full health.
- ⁴As for me, I said, “O LORD, be gracious to me;
heal me, for I have sinned against you!”
- ⁵My enemies say of me in malice,
“When will he die and his name perish?”
- ⁶And when one comes to see me, he utters empty words,
while his heart gathers iniquity;
when he goes out, he tells it abroad.
- ⁷All who hate me whisper together about me;
they imagine the worst for me.
- ⁸They say, “A deadly thing is poured out on him;
he will not rise again from where he lies.”
- ⁹Even my close friend in whom I trusted,
who ate my bread, has lifted his heel against me.
- ¹⁰But you, O LORD, be gracious to me,
and raise me up, that I may repay them!
- ¹¹By this I know that you delight in me:
my enemy will not shout in triumph over me.
- ¹²But you have upheld me because of my integrity, and set me in your presence forever.
- ¹³Blessèd be the LORD, the God of Israel,
from everlasting to everlasting!
Amen and Amen.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son
and to the Holy Spirit;
as it was in the beginning,
is now, and will be forever. Amen.

The Readings

Reading

L A reading from Leviticus, chapter 18.

Leviticus 18:1–5; 19:9–18

¹ The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, ²“Speak to the people of Israel and say to them, I am the LORD your God. ³You shall not do as they do in the land of Egypt, where you lived, and you shall not do as they do in the land of Canaan, to which I am bringing you. You shall not walk in their statutes. ⁴You shall follow my rules and keep my statutes and walk in them. I am the LORD your God. ⁵You shall therefore keep my statutes and my rules; if a person does them, he shall live by them: I am the LORD. . . .

⁹“When you reap the harvest of your land, you shall not reap your field right up to its edge, neither shall you gather the gleanings after your harvest. ¹⁰And you shall not strip your vineyard bare, neither shall you gather the fallen grapes of your vineyard. You shall leave them for the poor and for the sojourner: I am the LORD your God.

¹¹“You shall not steal; you shall not deal falsely; you shall not lie to one another. ¹²You shall not swear by my name falsely, and so profane the name of your God: I am the LORD.

¹³“You shall not oppress your neighbor or rob him. The wages of a hired servant shall not remain with you all night until the morning. ¹⁴You shall not curse the deaf or put a stumbling block before the blind, but you shall fear your God: I am the LORD.

¹⁵“You shall do no injustice in court. You shall not be partial to the poor or defer to the great, but in righteousness shall you judge your neighbor. ¹⁶You shall not go around as a slanderer among your people, and you shall not stand up against the life of your neighbor: I am the LORD.

¹⁷“You shall not hate your brother in your heart, but you shall reason frankly with your neighbor, lest you incur sin because of him. ¹⁸You shall not take vengeance or bear a grudge against the sons of your own people, but you shall love your neighbor as yourself: I am the LORD.”

L O Lord, have mercy on us.

C Thanks be to God.

Reading

Colossians 1:1-14

L A reading from Colossians, chapter 1.

¹Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and Timothy our brother,

²To the saints and faithful brothers in Christ at Colossae:

Grace to you and peace from God our Father.

³We always thank God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, when we pray for you, ⁴since we heard of your faith in Christ Jesus and of the love that you have for all the saints, ⁵because of the hope laid up for you in heaven. Of this you have heard before in the word of the truth, the gospel, ⁶which has come to you, as indeed in the whole world it is bearing fruit and growing—as it also does among you, since the day you heard it and understood the grace of God in truth, ⁷just as you learned it from Epaphras our beloved fellow servant. He is a faithful minister of Christ on your behalf ⁸and has made known to us your love in the Spirit.

⁹And so, from the day we heard, we have not ceased to pray for you, asking that you may be filled with the knowledge of his will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding, ¹⁰so as to walk in a manner worthy of the Lord, fully pleasing to him, bearing fruit in every good work and increasing in the knowledge of God. ¹¹May you be strengthened with all power, according to his glorious might, for all endurance and patience with joy, ¹²giving thanks to the Father, who has qualified you to share in the inheritance of the saints in light. ¹³He has delivered us from the domain of darkness and transferred us to the kingdom of his beloved Son, ¹⁴in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins.

L O Lord, have mercy on us.

C Thanks be to God.

Reading

L A reading from Luke, chapter 10.

²⁵Behold, a lawyer stood up to put [Jesus] to the test, saying, “Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?” ²⁶He said to him, “What is written in the Law? How do you read it?” ²⁷And he answered, “You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind, and your neighbor as yourself.” ²⁸And he said to him, “You have answered correctly; do this, and you will live.”

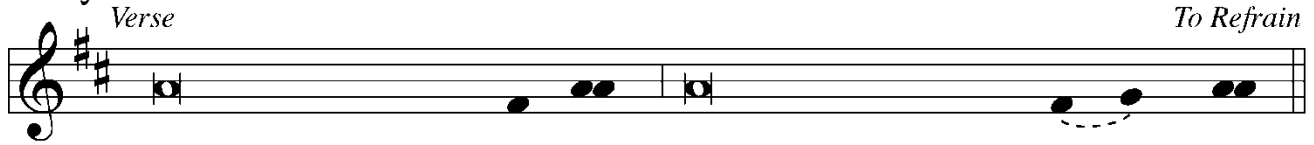

²⁹But he, desiring to justify himself, said to Jesus, “And who is my neighbor?” ³⁰Jesus replied, “A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and he fell among robbers, who stripped him and beat him and departed, leaving him half dead. ³¹Now by chance a priest was going down that road, and when he saw him he passed by on the other side. ³²So likewise a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side. ³³But a Samaritan, as he journeyed, came to where he was, and when he saw him, he had compassion. ³⁴He went to him and bound up his wounds, pouring on oil and wine. Then he set him on his own animal and brought him to an inn and took care of him. ³⁵And the next day he took out two denarii and gave them to the innkeeper, saying, ‘Take care of him, and whatever more you spend, I will repay you when I come back.’ ³⁶Which of these three, do you think, proved to be a neighbor to the man who fell among the robbers?” ³⁷He said, “The one who showed him mercy.” And Jesus said to him, “You go, and do likewise.”

L O Lord, have mercy on us.

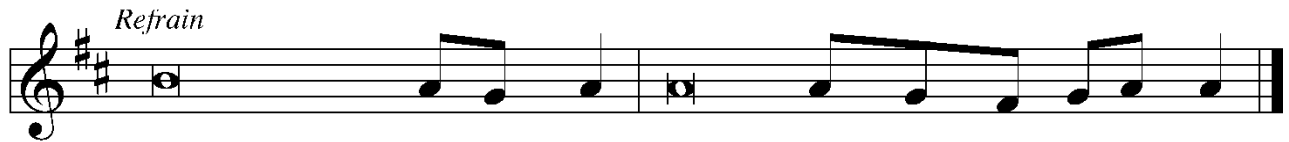

C Thanks be to God.

Prayer

Announcements and those for whom we pray are mentioned here. Then shall be sung:

The Kyrie

LSB 227

C Lord, have mer-cy; Christ, have mer-cy; Lord, have mer-cy.

Lord's Prayer

C Our Father who art in heaven,
hallowed be Thy name,
Thy kingdom come,
Thy will be done on earth
as it is in heaven;
give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our trespasses
as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever and ever. Amen.

L O Lord, hear my prayer.

C And let my cry come to You.

Collect of the Day

P Let us pray.

Lord Jesus Christ, in Your deep compassion You rescue us from whatever may hurt us. Teach us to love You above all things and to love our neighbors as ourselves; for You live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

C A - men.

Collect of General Intercession

Lord God, heavenly Father, we offer before You our common supplications for the well-being of Your Church throughout the world. So guide and govern it by Your Holy Spirit that all your sons and daughters may be led into the way of truth. Unite us in pure doctrine and holy living, and lift up our eyes in hopeful expectation for the coming of our Savior, Jesus Christ.

Send down upon all ministers of the Gospel, including Andrew our pastor, Daniel our pastor and district president, Matthew our Synod president, and upon the congregations entrusted to their care the Spirit of Your grace that they may please You in all things.

Behold in mercy all who are in authority over us, including Eric our Governor, and Joseph our President. Supply them with Your blessing that they may be inclined to Your will and walk according to Your commandments.

We humbly ask Your abiding presence in all sicknesses, trials, and adversities that rise to meet us in our earthly pilgrimage. Preserve those who travel; satisfy the wants of Your creatures; and help those who call upon You in any need, that they may have patience in the midst of their affliction and, according to Your good and gracious will, be released from their suffering; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

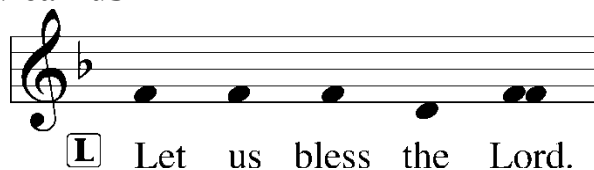

Collect for Grace

L O Lord, our heavenly Father, almighty and everlasting God, You have safely brought us to the beginning of this day. Defend us in the same with Your mighty power and grant that this day we fall into no sin, neither run into any kind of danger, but that all our doings, being ordered by Your governance, may be righteous in Your sight; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Hymn to Depart | 683 Jesus, Thy Boundless Love to Me

The Parable of the Good Samaritan

None of us is the Good Samaritan. None of us has loved our neighbor as ourselves, except for one of us. There is one of us who has been ‘perfect neighbor to the man.’ It is Jesus.

Jesus is the Good Samaritan: hated by his own countrymen, rejected by the Jews as the man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief. He stepped across the heavenly boundary to find you and I dead in the ditch of our trespasses and sins. He felt compassion for us in our plight. He shouldered the weight of our burdens. He bound up our wounds. He poured on the oil and wine of the Holy Sacraments. He took us to the inn of the Church which is the hospital for sinners. He paid our debts by the blood of his cross. He promised to come back for us on the third day. Jesus is the true neighbor to all of us. And this is the point of the Good Samaritan:

To answer that lawyer’s original question, “Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?” Jesus shows that eternal life comes, not in doing mercy, but in receiving mercy. Eternal life comes, not because we are the doers of righteousness, but because we are the objects of divine grace—because we have received, by grace, that love which is manifested for the world in Jesus Christ. Eternal life can’t be bought or earned. It can only be received as a gift.

So, since we have received the Lord’s mercy, what now? Because we are now free in the Gospel, we can go and do likewise. We can love our neighbors as Christ loved us. Of course, we will do this imperfectly in this life, because of the presence of indwelling sin. But led by the Holy Spirit, we will love as Jesus loved us. We will show mercy to the stranger. We will embrace the hurt and the downtrodden of our communities—and not in order to earn our salvation, or God’s love or approval. We already have these things by grace in Christ. But we do those things, simply because this is who we are as Christians. This is what the Holy Spirit re-creates us to be: people of faith who manifest the fruits of love and service to the neighbor in our lives. We are ‘little Christs’ who show forth Christ’s own love in our lives. Since we have received of the Lord’s grace in Christ, the Spirit helps us in our weakness to go and do likewise to our neighbors around us, motivated not by the Law, but by the Gospel of our salvation.

Announcements

St. Paul

Summer services. St. Paul will host one Sunday service at 9AM through to Labor Day weekend. Wednesday service is hosted at 7PM through summer, and throughout the entire year.

Elders/Council/Voters meetings are this Monday (elders 6, Council 7) and Tuesday (Voters 7). Please join us if you serve on Church Council or if you are a member of the Voters Assembly.

Noodles will be made twice this summer: July 11, 12, 13 (this week) and July 25, 26, 27. All are welcome to join in helping. We begin at 7am each day, but please come when you can and stay as long as you are able. Due to rising costs we are requesting donations of 10 pound bags of flour. We need a total of 120 10lb bags. If you make a donation, leave the bags on the kitchen counter.

150th Anniversary. Next year (2023) St. Paul celebrates her 150th anniversary. Incorporated in 1873, our historic Lutheran congregation in Preble, Indiana has enjoyed the presence of Christ in Word and Sacrament for generations. This is a great blessing which calls for our rejoicing.

Logo Contest. We are calling for an official design for our anniversary which can be put on apparel, cups, mugs, pens, etc. The entire congregation is invited to submit designs on an 8 ½ x 11 sheet of paper now to Pr. Yeager, who will share with the committee. The design MUST include (1) something signifying our 150th anniversary and (2) something that signifies St. Paul (words, an icon like our steeple, etc). Once the committee makes their selection, the winner of the contest will be awarded with a $100 gift. We would like all creative and artistic members, young and old, to come up with ideas. The design could be produced by any medium: drawing, markers, crayons, colored pencils, paint, or through a computer program. We will then take the winning design and create apparel and swag to be sold throughout the congregation in coming months, used for evangelism, etc. All submissions will be put on display at some point. The deadline for submissions is August 15th of this year. Put your creativity to use!!

Support SGO's. The Lutheran Scholarship Granting Organization form is in the narthex. Pick up a copy today and designate Wyneken Memorial Lutheran School as the school of your choice to receive your S.G.O. directed contribution. The Lutheran S.G.O. of Indiana is a 501(c)3 non-profit corporation approved by the IRS to receive tax-advantaged contributions, benefiting both the donor, the school, and the students receiving contributions. Your donation helps our school's students, as by your gift, the overall cost of registration is reduced. Thanks for your help!

Support Hope Clinic and Northeast Indiana Right to Life. We give thanks to God that Roe has been overturned. This is a huge victory of life. But the battle to protect the life of the unborn is not close to being over. States like our own must pass laws to protect the lives of the unborn. The prolife movement must continue to be active in prayer, community events, and supporting new mothers and their children with their time and resources. We invite you to learn more about the Hope Clinic (Berne and Decatur) at friendsofthehopelclinic.net and also encourage you to support and participate in the events of Northeast Indiana Right to Life at ichooselife.org.

Support Ronald McDonald House. This charity at Parview Regional Hospital feeds and houses families with sick children who have gone to the hospital. The food provided is given by the generosity and kindness of Christians like you. Our own members have benefited, and the house at Parkview North is staffed by our own Sarah Tharp. Here is how you can help: go shopping, pick up any item on the list below. A tote is in the narthex. Place items in the tote, and we will pass along to Ronald McDonald House regularly. See rmhc-neindiana.org to learn more.

- Chips (variety packs)
- Pop Tarts (all kinds)
- Individually wrapped breakfast items
- Fruit snacks
- Little Debbie snacks (all kinds)
- Oatmeal cups (no packets)

Church Directory. Our Church Directory is two years old. We want to keep it up to date with member's contacts and personal info. Please look at one of the 'Sample Directories' in the narthex and confirm that your information is all correct. If you would be so kind, please also check the information of your family members too. It would be a bonus if you would even update us with your kids college information (address, name of college/university, etc) so that our members might stay connected with them. If your information is totally not there, please fill out one of the contact information sheets located next to the sample directories and we will update your information accordingly. Thank you.

About the Hope Clinic

In Berne and Decatur

Our Mission is to be the first choice for anyone facing an unplanned pregnancy.

Our Vision is to make abortion unthinkable for all who come us.

Our approach to accomplish this life-affirming mission and vision:

- Accept all who come to us in Christ's love, compassion and without judgment.
- Offer medical services including: pregnancy testing, ultrasound, and STI screening and treatment.
- Provide compassionate care and evidence-based information to women and men facing unplanned pregnancies or sexually transmitted infections.
- Offer material assistance programs for under-resourced families.
- Provide education, coaching and mentoring on pregnancy, parenting, relationships, sexual health, and addictive behaviors.
- Offer support and healing to those struggling with past abortions.
- Prevent crisis pregnancies and the spread of STIs through sexual risk avoidance education.
- Share the gospel of Jesus Christ, offer spiritual guidance, and connect people into local churches.

Our History

The Hope Center opened in donated space in a doctor's office in Berne on January 17, 1992. During our first year, we served 40 women. Ten years later we needed more space. Community members rallied together to raise additional funds which helped us purchase and renovate the current Berne office. This is also when our first ultrasound machine was donated.

In 2005, volunteers gave over 700 hours to renovate the Berne office. Furniture and interior décor were donated, and a Nurse Manager was hired. Additional fundraising events and a grant helped fund our medical conversion, and The Hope Center converted to the Hope Clinic, offering on-site ultrasound verification of pregnancy.

Three years later, in 2009, the Hope Clinic joyfully merged with Decatur Life Choice Pregnancy Center. We opened a second location in Decatur, and began renting office space. An ultrasound machine was purchased for the Decatur office later that same year.

As we became more established in the Decatur community, we saw a growing need to expand our vision and our services to meet the increasing needs of our clients. Our next step was moving to a larger space. We were blessed in August of 2012 to be able to purchase the entire building where we were already established! In January of 2014 we dedicated the renovation of the Decatur Clinic.

In late 2015 we added evening hours for the first time, and in early 2016 we began offering STI/STD testing and treatment. Later that same year we launched a Family Mentoring Ministry to help clients redirect their lives and end generational cycles of family dysfunction. In 2019 we were blessed to join the Abortion Pill Rescue Network, offering a protocol that has proven successful in reversing chemical abortions if administered in the first few days after the first abortion pill is taken.

Through it all, we have faithfully followed God's lead in offering new services to further our mission, and He has blessed this ministry richly! We are privileged to serve Him by showing love and offering hope to an average of around 500 clients each year.
