The Transfiguration of Our Lord | February 19, 2023 | 8 and 10:15am

The Lord Jesus is Transfigured in Glory

When the bells ring, please stand and face the cross.

Processional Hymn | 409 Hail, O Source of Every Blessing

Confession and Absolution

The sign of the cross may be made by all in remembrance of their Baptism.

P In the name of the Father and of the ✠ Son and of the Holy Spirit.

C Amen.

P Beloved in the Lord! Let us draw near with a true heart and confess our sins unto God our Father, beseeching Him in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to grant us forgiveness.

P Our help is in the name of the Lord,

C who made heaven and earth.

P I said, I will confess my transgressions unto the Lord,

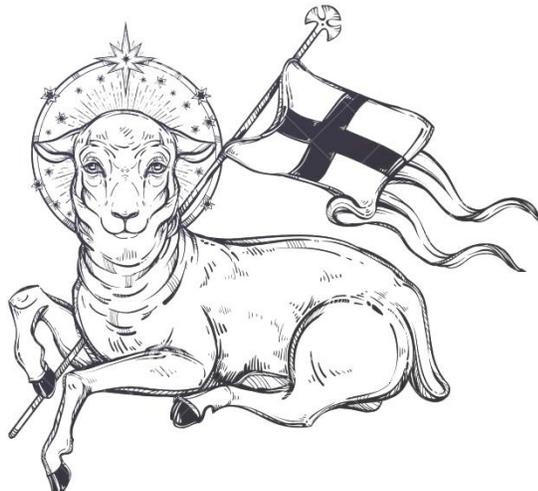

C and You forgave the iniquity of my sin.

P O almighty God, merciful Father,

C I, a poor, miserable sinner, confess unto You all my sins and iniquities with which I have ever offended You and justly deserved Your temporal and eternal punishment. But I am heartily sorry for them and sincerely repent of them, and I pray You of Your boundless mercy and for the sake of the holy, innocent, bitter sufferings and death of Your beloved Son, Jesus Christ, to be gracious and merciful to me, a poor, sinful being.

P Upon this your confession, I, by virtue of my office, as a called and ordained servant of the Word, announce the grace of God unto all of you, and in the stead and by the command of my Lord Jesus Christ I forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father and of the ✠ Son and of the Holy Spirit.

C Amen.

Old Testament Reading

Exodus 24:8-18

⁸And Moses took the blood and threw it on the people and said, “Behold the blood of the covenant that the LORD has made with you in accordance with all these words.”
⁹Then Moses and Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel went up,
¹⁰and they saw the God of Israel. There was under his feet as it were a pavement of sapphire stone, like the very heaven for clearness. ¹¹And he did not lay his hand on the chief men of the people of Israel; they beheld God, and ate and drank.
¹²The LORD said to Moses, “Come up to me on the mountain and wait there, that I may give you the tablets of stone, with the law and the commandment, which I have written for their instruction.” ¹³So Moses rose with his assistant Joshua, and Moses went up into the mountain of God. ¹⁴And he said to the elders, “Wait here for us until we return to you. And behold, Aaron and Hur are with you. Whoever has a dispute, let him go to them.”

¹⁵Then Moses went up on the mountain, and the cloud covered the mountain. ¹⁶The glory of the LORD dwelt on Mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it six days. And on the seventh day he called to Moses out of the midst of the cloud. ¹⁷Now the appearance of the glory of the LORD was like a devouring fire on the top of the mountain in the sight of the people of Israel. ¹⁸Moses entered the cloud and went up on the mountain. And Moses was on the mountain forty days and forty nights.

A This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

Epistle

2 Peter 1:16–21

¹⁶For we did not follow cleverly devised myths when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we were eyewitnesses of his majesty. ¹⁷For when he received honor and glory from God the Father, and the voice was borne to him by the Majestic Glory, “This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased,” ¹⁸we ourselves heard this very voice borne from heaven, for we were with him on the holy mountain. ¹⁹And we have something more sure, the prophetic word, to which you will do well to pay attention as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts, ²⁰knowing this first of all, that no prophecy of Scripture comes from someone’s own interpretation. ²¹For no prophecy was ever produced by the will of man, but men spoke from God as they were carried along by the Holy Spirit.

P This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

Matthew 17:1-9

P The Holy Gospel according to St. Matthew, the seventeenth chapter.

G Glo - ry be to Thee, O Lord.

¹After six days Jesus took with him Peter and James, and John his brother, and led them up a high mountain by themselves. ²And he was transfigured before them, and his face shone like the sun, and his clothes became white as light. ³And behold, there appeared to them Moses and Elijah, talking with him. ⁴And Peter said to Jesus, “Lord, it is good that we are here. If you wish, I will make three tents here, one for you and one for Moses and one for Elijah.” ⁵He was still speaking when, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them, and a voice from the cloud said, “This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to him.” ⁶When the disciples heard this, they fell on their faces and were terrified. ⁷But Jesus came and touched them, saying, “Rise, and have no fear.” ⁸And when they lifted up their eyes, they saw no one but Jesus only.

⁹And as they were coming down the mountain, Jesus commanded them, “Tell no one the vision, until the Son of Man is raised from the dead.”

The Transfiguration of Our Lord

A Meditation on the Word of God | Matthew 17:1-9

When the Son of God came into this world as a Man, he set his glory aside and put on humility (Phil. 2). This means that, to see Jesus, the incarnate God, in his day to day existence was to see an ordinary human being. He looked no different than other men. He had to become like us in our ordinariness. He had to become like us in every way except without sin (Hebrews 4).

But for one brief moment, Jesus takes his disciples—Peter, James, and John—up a mountain apart. And there, he is transfigured before them. That means his form literally changes. His face begins to shine like the sun. Light radiates through his clothing. This is Jesus in his unfiltered glory. Moses and Elijah appear. They talk with Jesus. What does that mean? Moses represents the Law, Elijah the prophets. It's a sign that all the Law and the Prophets are about Jesus and are fulfilled in Jesus. He is the center of the Scriptures. A bright cloud descends. The Father's voice booms: "This is my beloved Son. Listen to him." The disciples fall on their faces terrified. Jesus touches them. They look up. And all of it is gone in a moment. And they see Jesus only.

Now what are we to make of it? At his Transfiguration, we see Jesus for who he really is, as the Son of God in human flesh. And that's really what Epiphany is all about. Christmas is the season where God gives us the heavenly gift, which is Jesus. Epiphany is the season where we see the heavenly gift unwrapped. In Epiphany, Jesus is revealed for who he really is. God's Son.

Ultimately, the Transfiguration of our Lord is a great comfort. When we see Jesus shining on the mountaintop, we're getting a glimpse into the life that awaits every Christian. We're getting a sneak peek of the Resurrection—when we too will shine like Jesus, with glorified, immortal, incorruptible bodies, free of sin and free of death. Christ by his cross has taken our sin and death so that we might have life forever with him. The Transfiguration is a picture of the life of the world to come. Jesus gives us that picture now, so that when we do struggle under the cross and sufferings of this life, we might be comforted with the promise that our glorious status as the redeemed sons and daughters of Jesus—which is hidden now—will be made known, when he comes again in glory. And that's when we will know fully, as St. Paul says in Romans 8, how God works all things—even our crosses and the troubles of this life—together for good, for them that love God and are called according to his purpose. [Romans 8:28]

The Transfiguration is the last Sunday in Epiphany. After this Sunday, we enter the season of Lent. We put away the Alleluias and the Gloria in Excelsis for forty days. We leave the mountaintop, and follow Jesus to the cross. We will ponder anew the sufferings and death which won our salvation, so that we might learn to find in Jesus a beauty that we cannot find anywhere else in the world. There is no beauty, there is no light, there is no life, there is no hope, there is no peace outside of Jesus. But with Jesus—with body of Jesus and the blood of Jesus which hung on the cross for us—which we receive now in the Holy Communion under bread and wine—there is our hope, there is our life, and there is our beautiful Savior.
